

How to report your absence online

The first step in reporting an absence is knowing when to report it. Given the multiple benefits that can cover your absence, here are a few rules of thumb:

- Report your claim up to 30 days in advance of a planned absence.
- For an unplanned absence, report as soon as you're aware that you'll be absent for 180 consecutive days.

Report your absence online

1. Log in to LincolnFinancial.com. First-time users will need to provide personal information to register. You will need company code Brown, first and last name, birthdate, and the last four digits of your Social Security number.
2. Select Start a claim and answer a few questions.
 - About you: You'll need your employee identification number or other ID as required by your employer.
 - About your absence: Include the reason and dates of your absence, and if applicable, physician and diagnosis information.
3. Choose Submit.
For disability claims, you'll be asked to download, sign, and submit a medical authorization form, which you or your claims specialist can provide to your doctor.
4. You'll need your claim number to view the status for the first time. A PDF of the information you submit will be available to save for your records.
5. Check the status of your claim online at LincolnFinancial.com.
You can also opt in to text messaging via LincolnFinancial.com. You'll receive texts on the receipt, approval, and extension of an absence, benefit payment information, if applicable, and the closure or extension of a claim based on your return to work.
